

A Knight at The Met: This package is designed for the modern man who wants to put the sparkle back into one of the most significant moments in life – ‘The Marriage Proposal’. The ultimate setting for this heady occasion is The Penthouse high above Park Lane, with a private candlelit Champagne dinner for two served by your own private Butler. The Metropolitan has also secured an exclusive partnership with David Morris of Bond Street (www.davidmorrison.com) to help you acquire that all important, dazzling engagement ring. They have created two options for personal consultations in order to suit your preference of choosing and purchasing the ring. The following morning celebrate in style with a Champagne breakfast served in your room, a late check-out and a stunning engagement gift courtesy of The Met.
